Hi! Take care in Colorado
Jan

To Loyola in 1940 came a young Jesuit, when others were going to Europe and Asia beginning a campaign to save the free world. He came bringing knowledge to young men to make them free and to widen the horizons of their world. A dedicated priest, for twenty-seven years he tirelessly waged his campaign. With every PARLEZ-VOUS FRANCAIS, he led new explorers into wonderful worlds of Gallic thought. With warmth he followed the progress of each boy not only through each year but also through the years beyond schooling. Thus in 1943 he came to found the Alumni Association. Through its channels, he follows with heartfelt concern the ventures of each of his many proteges. And now, each summer, he conducts a day camp in which, frequently, are the sons of his former students. As the shadows grow longer across the field of the campaign to which he dedicated himself, that he may know how Loyola remembers him with warmth, this book of remembrance is dedicated, UNE LONGUE VIE.

To walk in a way of excellence as a commonplace
 To breathe the atmosphere of greatness unself-consciously
 To sit in the seat of champions, with ease and without concern
 To walk with Mary and her Son, as members of the Family
 THIS IS THE WAY OF THE RAMBLER
 Which he humbly accepts as a gifts,
 Bravely attempts as a challenge,
 Proudly proclaims as his privilege
 For the glory of his family, his school, his country, and God.

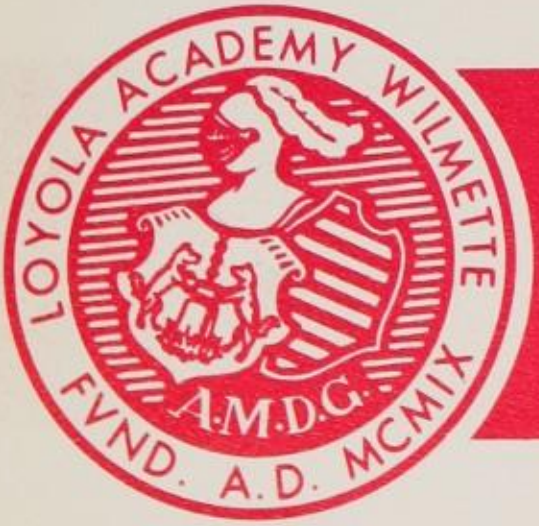

OUR LADY OF THE WAY

FACULTY

Inspired by the way of Saint Ignatius, guided and guarded by the Lady of the Way, these campaigners plot the course, form the ranks, and spur the faltering to unexpected goals and unsuspected successes.

SPORTS

Mary gave birth to Him who is the Way and thus a divine dignity came to man's physical nature. The Rambler, in all walks of physical achievement, reflects this glory by eminent prowess.

SOCCKER

Since its conception in A.D. 217, when only a few Romans played the game, soccer has evolved into the most popular sport in the world. Now in its third year at Loyola, Mr. Sendy and his team, continue to add victories and trophies to their growing list of achievements. During their two month season, the Ramblers rolled up an impressive record playing against the top soccer teams in the area.

"I read somewhere in Shakespeare—I don't remember where—that, 'Some people are born with greatness, some achieve it, and others have it thrust upon them.' Let's go!" With these inspiring words of Coach Naughton, the Ramblers charged onto the gridiron to play "The game of the year." Throughout these pages, we present to you a picture record of how this greatness was achieved.

BAND

The Band in marching form.

John Milewski directing the band at a basketball game.

Since its origin in 1965, the Loyola Academy Band has grown from a small to a relatively large number. Led by instructor Mr. Bartosz, this dedicated group has practiced weary hours to be able to produce melodic tunes and lively marches for L. A. students. Bright, indeed, is the future for this ever-growing, ever-improving group.

Mr. Bartosz at his best.

CHEERLEADERS

Pep Rally. Spirited voices. Cheers. "Ramblers! Ramblers!" Under the leadership of Mr. Bartosz, the L.A. cheerleaders display the spirit and desire so evident in Loyola men. The excellence of Loyola's athletic teams was augmented by strong voices cheering them.

One of the reasons for the continued excellence of the wrestling team is the almost Spartan life which they live. Sweat, pain, and guts are their code words.

Another reason is the top notch coaching of Mr. Wright. This combination, coaching and team effort, produced a winning season for the LA wrestling team.

BASEBALL

The '67 Loyola baseball team was one of the strongest ever fielded by the Ramblers. The starting nine was highlighted by the steady play and consistent hitting of starting seniors Ken Krajchovich, Pat Scanlan, Jim Walsh, and the pitching of junior Hank Hyde. Coaches John and Jim O'Laughlin worked long hours to set this team on its path toward victory.

LIGHTS

This year, the lights, providing the school with many thrilling victories, had one of the most successful seasons ever recorded by a L. A. lightweight team. They are presently contending for the Catholic League lightweight Championship in the playoffs. Hard work and superb coaching by Mr. Sullivan and Mr. John O'Laughlin brought them to the prominence they are enjoying now. Loyola Academy congratulates the lights and welcomes them into our family of Champions.

HEAVIES

Year after year, the Heavies basketball team has brought athletic fame to the Academy. This year was no exception. Directed by Coach Gene Sullivan and his assistant, Coach John O'Laughlin, the team fought its way to another winning season after a slow start. The team beat every other school in this section and also defeated defending city champions, Marshall. Loyola can truly be proud of the 1966-'67 basketball team.

Sparked by the superior coaching of Mr. Eugene Ulrich S.J., and the outstanding running of juniors Bob Burke and Mike Burns, the team ran to an admirable 5-3 season. They also coasted by their adversaries to take the North Section Championships and placed a solid fourth in the City Championships.

REVENGE

ACTIVITIES

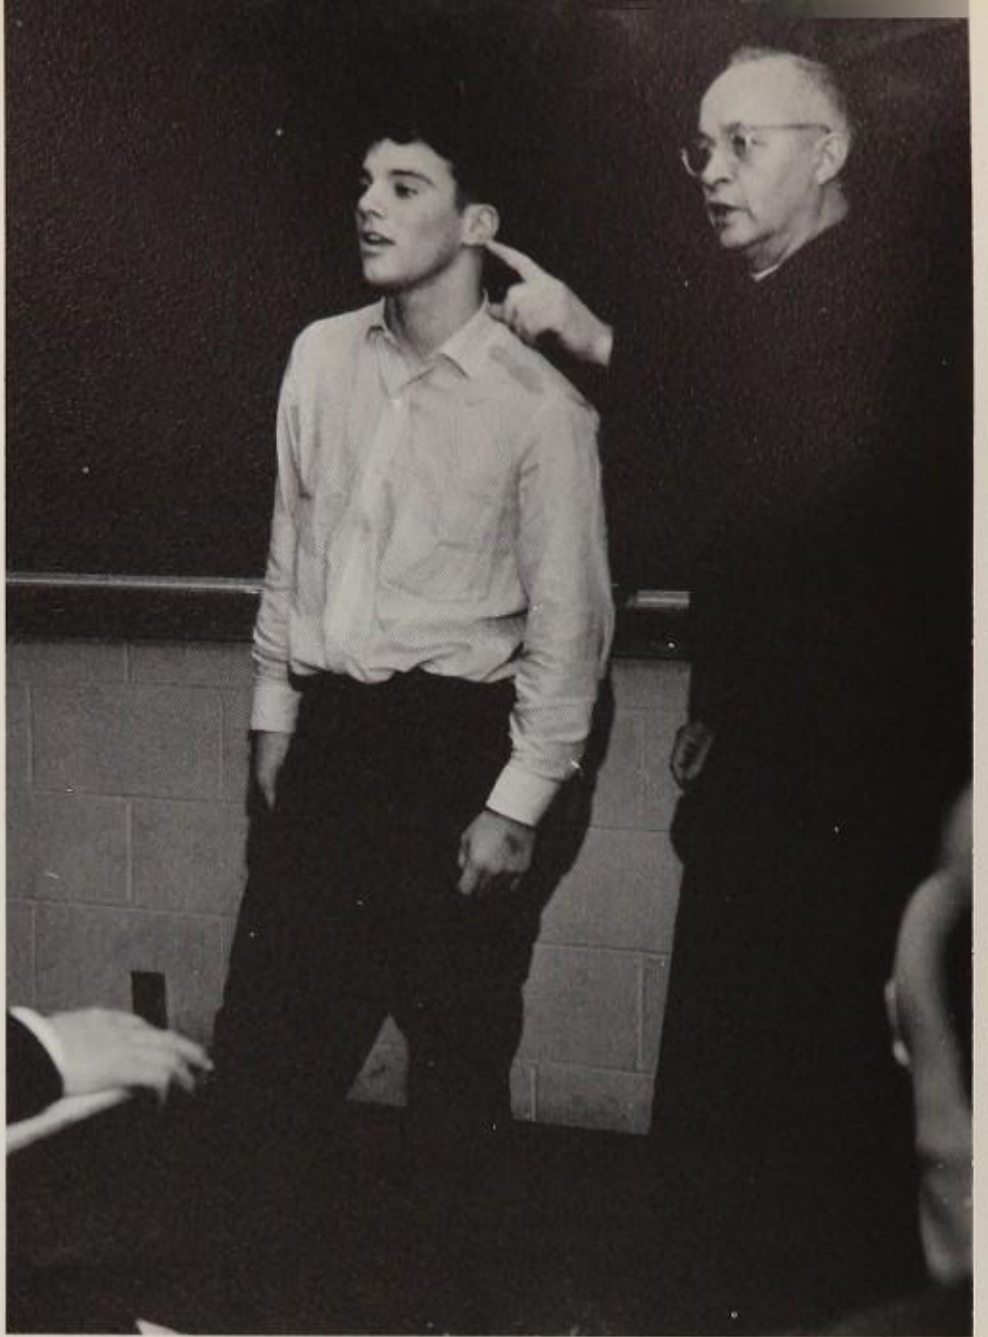

The Rambler along his way finds a variety of interesting activities to exercise his growing powers in the school of life. He sharpens and shapes his wit and talents as he matures into a man capable to cope with the world around him.

Father Ignatius M. Burrill, S.J.

The Men of the Sacred Heart, one of the largest organizations at Loyola, is often referred to as the "minor leagues" of the Sodality. It offers Loyola students not cut out to be Sodalists a fair chance to do their part for God.

Led by Fr. Ignatius M. Burrill S.J., the MSH is as much a part of Loyola as football or basketball. To many, Loyola just would not be Loyola without the Men of the Sacred Heart.

Halloran, T. Dussman, W. McDonagh, C. Carpenter, T. Fontaine, L. Donoghue, F. Smith, R. Gleason, M. Johnson.

Fr. Paul J. Clifford, S.J.

Excellence. That is the word that exemplifies the LA sodalists. It is THE activity at Loyola. Under the fervent direction of Fr. Clifford, it tutors the underprivileged, conducts the annual Bal Masque, and produces the highest quality of Christian men. From this organization will come the leaders of tomorrow who really care about the world of today.

Moderators of Sophomore Sodality: Mr. T. Riordan, S.J.; Mr. M. Cooper, S.J.; Mr. K. Bronsel, S.J.; Mr. A. Delaney, S.J.; Mr. T. Salzmänn, S.J.; Mr. M. Owens, S.J.

Members of the Probationary Sodality

Bob Bennewitz, Rob Thomas

Throughout the year, the Guild has heralded the arrival of school activities. Under the apt direction of Mr. Jerome Wagner, S.J., assisted by officers Rob Thomas and Bob Bennewitz and their staff, the Guild has illuminated the austere caverns of our school. Their colorful posters depicting various events, places, and personalities has helped bring out the spirit that is so much a part of Loyola.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Jim Merki, Bill Devine, Tom Enright, Peter McMenamin

A strong student council necessitates a strong student body. This group is marked by vision and initiative, which was wisely followed by most Ramblers eager to excel. No blind leaders of the blind, Mike Cannizzaro, President, Peter McMenamin, Vice President, Bill Devine, Secretary, Tom Enright, Treasurer, and Jim Merki, Sergeant-at-Arms, so alertly and purposefully promoted old and new endeavors, that most students found rich variety in their way.

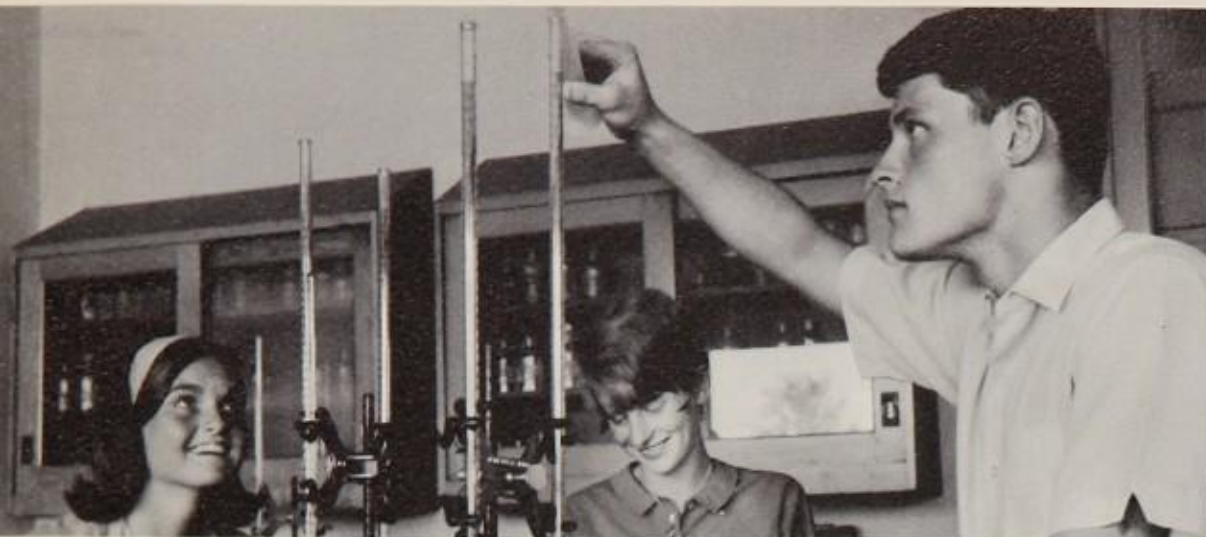

Mr. William Truesdell, S.J.

The History Forum, although relatively small, is a growing activity with great significance at Loyola. It proves the pursuit of learning by Ramblers, who are continuing in a glowing tradition of academic excellence combined with spiritual merit.

SUMMER

Fr. Wisniewski, S.J., visiting summer school disciplinarian

SCHOOL

Summer '66 was something special for Loyola. For the first time, members of the opposite sex were admitted to our rooms. Loyola students gained insight of life at public schools with this welcome visit.

Meanwhile, our travel-minded scholars were touring Europe in conjunction with the Loyola summer school conducted in Madrid. Walking the beaten path and visiting out-of-the-way places helped the students actually fit into Europe's unique environment.

TalVue director, Mr. Lawrence Reuter S.J., presents Hogan award to Mary Lou Marcin of Alvernia.

One of the most exciting events at Loyola is the annual Talent Revue. The show featured the directing of gifted Mr. Reuter, S.J., top-rate talent from twelve schools, and judges well known in the entertainment world. Behind the scenes was a hard working stage crew. Thousands of people entered the auditorium and three hours later they left extremely satisfied. The '67 Talvue was a tribute to everybody involved. Just ask anybody who came.

A great job was done by Mr. Bartosz and his orchestra as they provided entertainment between acts.
